Description of software

The Information Technologies Institute (ITI) of Centre of Research and Technology Hellas (CERTH) Authority is interested to purchase software licences of a file encryption software in order to secure sensitive and classified deliverables, as well as project-related data against unauthorized access, espionage, and data breaches, in full compliance with EU defense funding security requirements. The project title in which the services are included is entitled «A Human-Centred MSaaS Ecosystem for Enhanced Mission Planning and Execution via Battlefield Modelling, Adversarial AI, and Multi-domain Simulation Environments – BATTLEVERSE» G.A. 101224034/HE (KOH.021453).

Title of Software: Filkrypto by Tutus

CPV: 48000000-8

Total Budgeted Expenditure in Euro (€), excluding VAT: 7.000,00€

Purpose of the software

The purpose of the Filkrypto software is to provide high-assurance file encryption that meets stringent European defense funding standards, ensuring that all project deliverables and classified information remain protected from unauthorized access both at rest and in transit. The BattleVerse consortium should purchase it to mitigate the risk of data breaches or espionage, comply with strict EU security regulations for defense funding, and maintain the operational integrity of our sensitive project outcomes through verifiable, auditable cryptographic controls. Filkrypto is approved for EU-classified and NATO Restricted information, and it utilized in similar European Defence Fund projects.

CERTH, as the contractor and the data controller, informs the natural person who signs the written quotation as a bidder or as a legal representative of the bidder, that by itself or third parties, by order and on its behalf, will process the below personal data, as follows:

I. The data processing includes personal data contained in the written quotation and the supporting documents submitted by the natural person, who is the bidder or the legal representative of the bidder, to the contractor in the context of this request for quotation. Indicatively, the processed data could be the identity and contact information of the bidder and any other personal information which is referred to his written quotation and his declaration regarding his non-exclusion according to article 73 of Law 4412/2016, and any other supporting document that may be requested by the contractor in the light of compliance with the applicable public procurement laws.

II. The data processing is necessary for the evaluation of the bidder's quotation, the performance of the procurement procedure, the exercise or defense of legal claims, rights, and interests of CERTH, the fulfillment of its legal obligations, and the general security of transactions. It is noted that the identity and contact information will be used for communication with the bidder regarding the evaluation of his quotation.

III. Recipients of the above data could be:

- (a) Bodies that are assigned by CERTH to perform specific actions on its behalf, i.e. its consultants and executives, members of the Evaluation Committees, other agents, etc., provided that, in any case, privacy and confidentiality principles are met.
- (b) Authorities and bodies of the public sector, courts, or other judicial authorities, within the scope of their capacity and responsibilities.

(c) The other participants-bidders, in the light of the principle of transparency and for their pre-litigation and judicial protection, in accordance with the law.

IV. The data will be kept for an equivalent period to the duration of the performance of the contract and after its expiration for a period of five years, for purposes of tax, financial or other audits according to the current legislation, unless the legislation requires a different retention period. In case there are legal proceedings pending regarding the contract, the data are kept until the end of the pending litigation. Upon expiration of the above periods, personal data will be destroyed.

V. The natural person who is either a bidder or a legal representative of the bidder, may exercise any of his/her rights regarding the processing of personal data concerning him/her (the right to access; the right to object; the right to erasure; the right to restrict processing; the right to rectify; the right to data portability), by making a request to the Data Protection Officer of CERTH. The data subject also has the right to file a complaint to the Data Protection Authority (DPA) through its web portal.

VI. The contractor shall implement any appropriate measure to ensure the security of processing and the protection of personal data against accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, alteration, unauthorised disclosure, or access.

VII. If you wish to be informed/learn more about the processing of your personal data by the contractor or if you want to exercise your legal rights, please contact the Data Protection Officer of CERTH at dpo@certh.gr.
